

LEGACY OF 100 YEARS CONQUERING NEW FRONTIERS AROUND THE GLOBE

SINCE 1923

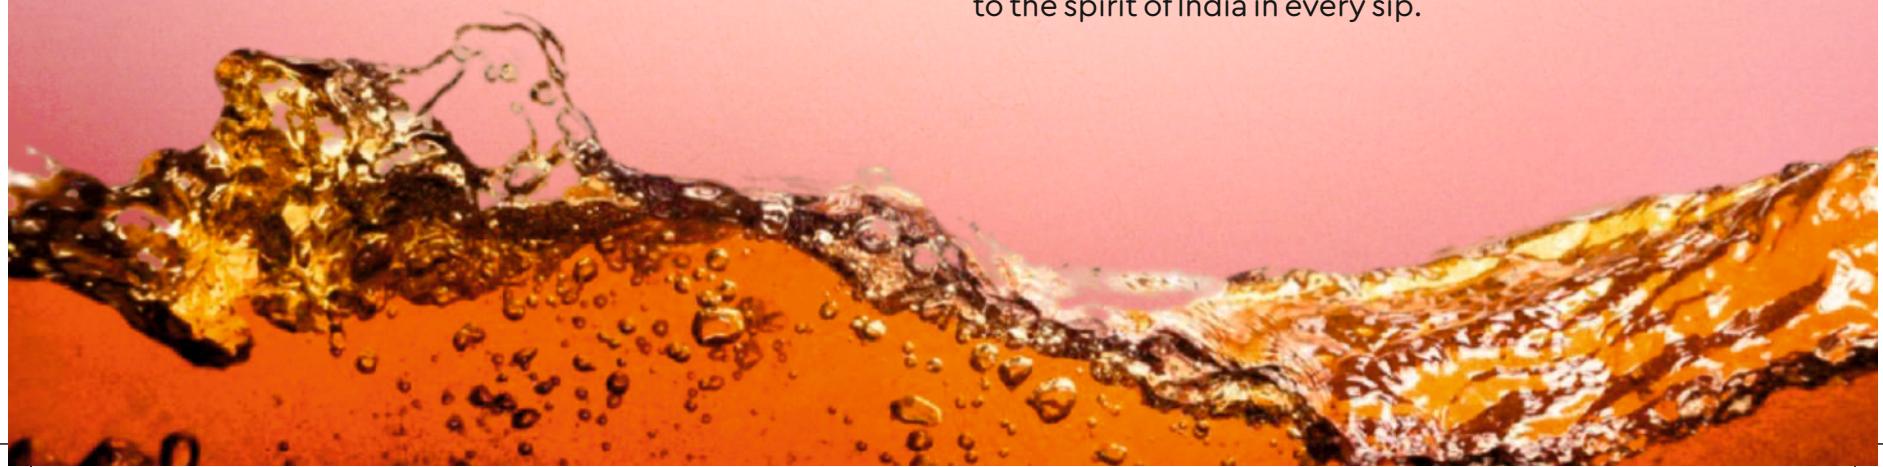

GENESIS OF THE LEGENDARY INDIAN BEVERAGES

The tale of Sosyo begins in the vibrant tapestry of India's pre-independence era. Amidst the fervor of the independence movement, a spirited young man named Mr. Abbas Rahim Hajoori from Surat dared to dream. In 1923, he took a bold step to create a homegrown alternative to British beverages, launching India's very first carbonated cold drink.

In 1957, the drink evolved and was rebranded as "Socio," a name reflecting its social spirit under the banner of Sosyo Hajoori Beverages Pvt. Ltd., inspired by the Latin word "socious." However, the people embraced a twist, affectionately calling it "Sosyo."

With the tagline "Apna Desh, Apna Drink," Sosyo quickly bubbled to the surface of the market, capturing hearts in Surat and beyond. Its delightful flavors led to over 100 variations, securing its place among India's top 1,000 brands. Today, the legacy continues through a dynamic father-son duo, who are taking the Hajoori dream to even greater heights, toasting to the spirit of India in every sip.
