JEEVANSINGHJI JAIN
FOUNDER
Maharana Foods

Jeevansingh Jain (Founder), reached Bardoli (Gujarat) to pursue his dreams in 1980. He took his qualification at the “city of lakes – Udaipur”. He hail to the land where it is inherent how to dream and how to make it true. And since he was interested in the field of food business and wanted to carve a niche in this field.

One thing he strictly love to stick is his core values in retaining trust of the valuable customers while assuring the quality products. It's created in keeping the view of its purity at its best.

We believe and guarantee you that not only our products are prepared manually but we ensure deny using artificial preservatives or artificial colors as well and this brought us a “big name” and “fame” to establish our empire across the world. We feel delighted to serve a large market. We trust in you as you will be loyal to us. Once you understand the product quality, you will support us. We guarantee you that we will keep providing you tasty and quality food. Nevertheless, your suggestions are always welcome. We will keep on satisfying your traditional food needs.

WHAT IS MAHARANA ?

In 1982, Jeevansingh Jain started Maharana with a mom & pop retail store. Initially, he found there is a need for quality and authenticity of indian traditional taste. This surprised him and drove him to take up the challenge of creating products based on customer's demand. The overwhelming response of customers pulled him to motivate the team to upgrade their creativity and production further.

Maharana foods works on the idiosyncratic conception of making "tasty food healthy, healthy food tasty". Our products are innovative, tasty, healthy, chemical and preservation free. Our products are the elite solutions for hunger pangs.

- ➡ We deal in Ready to Eat packaged food.
- ➡ We are in to manufacturing, processing, retailing, e-retail and indirect exports sales.
- ➡ We develop and own more than 400 innovative products.

USP OF MAHARANA

- ➡ We use natural process to make natural products with natural tastes.
- ➡ We don't use artificial color, chemical preservative and essence.
- ➡ Our ethics does not allow us to compromise in taste, quality and service.
- ➡ We make healthy food tasty and tasty food healthy.
- ➡ We have well experienced and trained chef, co-operative sales team, pleasant atmosphere and wide range of products.
- ➡ With an advantage of in house manufacturing, we develop and launch new products on an average of 15 days.
- ➡ We have more than 60 associate members and we help approx 200 families in season.
